

My Answer

Group Answer

1. Cheerful

2. Clean

3. Forgiving

4. Helpful

5. Honest

6. Imaginative

7. Independent

8. Smart

9. Loving

10. Well-behaved

11. Polite

↺

12. Self-controlled

Name Kelvin Dyer

Personalities

Here is a list of 12 words describing people and their personalities. Using numbers, rate them in order of importance to you. Study the list carefully. Then place a 1 next to the quality that is most important to you. The quality that is least important to you should be number 12. There are no right or wrong answers.

	My Answer	Group Answer
1. Cheerful	12	9
2. Clean	11	2
3. Forgiving	10	2
4. Helpful	9	8
5. Honest	8	7
6. Imaginative	7	12
7. Independent	6	3
8. Smart	5	5
9. Loving	4	10
10. Well-behaved	3	11
11. Polite	1	4
12. Self-controlled	2	1

Name _____

Ways to Deal with Anger Questionnaire

Directions: Read the following scenarios. On the lines below, write what you think you should do to keep the situation peaceful. Think creatively, and think about things you would actually do.

1. You are walking down the hall and another student trips you.

2. You are standing in lunch line. Another student cuts in front of you.

3. You are sitting at your desk. You see another student throw someone's homework away.

4. You are working at your desk. Another student accuses you of stealing his/her crayons. You know you are innocent.

5. You are taking a test. Another student starts to copy your paper.

6. You are eating lunch. Someone throws your food on the floor.

7. You are playing a game. Another student keeps changing the rules so she will win.

8. You are on the playground. Another student keeps hitting you and running away.

Name Tyler

Ways to Deal with Anger Questionnaire

Directions: Read the following scenarios. On the lines below, write what you think you should do to keep the situation peaceful. Think creatively, and think about things you would actually do.

1. You are walking down the hall and another student trips you.

I would say "excuse me can apologize"

2. You are standing in lunch line. Another student cuts in front of you.

"come on move back"

3. You are sitting at your desk. You see another student throw someone's homework away.

"Anne he threw his homework away"

4. You are working at your desk. Another student accuses you of stealing his/her crayons. You know you are innocent.

"No I didn't"

5. You are taking a test. Another student starts to copy your paper.

cover my paper with my arm.

6. You are eating lunch. Someone throws your food on the floor.

"Hey"

7. You are playing a game. Another student keeps changing the rules so she will win..

"you are not playing fair!"

8. You are on the playground. Another student keeps hitting you and running away.

I play hide and seek

ANGER ISSUES

- Talk about it with the person
- Do not Hit back
- Tell a teacher
- Ask them "why did they do that?"
- Talk to them Nicely
- Don't yell at them
- Don't Dis them
- Tell your parents if it gets serious
- If he/she Dises you say so
- ignore them

Name _____

Date _____

Making a Difference

We have been learning about how to solve conflicts in school. That makes a difference in our community! Read about how other kids have made a difference in their communities:

<http://www.peacecorps.gov/kids/difference>

Then, answer the following questions:

1. Choose a kid. What did he or she do to make a difference?

2. If you could talk to him or her, what would you say? What would you ask?

3. If you wanted to do a project where you could make a difference, what would you do? What do you want to change in your school or community?

Name

Isla

Date

9/

Making a Difference

We have been learning about how to solve conflicts in school. That makes a difference in our community! Read about how other kids have made a difference in their communities:

<http://www.peacecorps.gov/kids/difference>

Then, answer the following questions:

1. Choose a kid. What did he or she do to make a difference?

She raising money for Nigeria for literacy

2. If you could talk to him or her, what would you say? What would you ask?

are you proud off your work, I would if I where you.

3. If you wanted to do a project where you could make a difference, what would you do? What do you want to change in your school or community?

I would raise money by selling stuff for the Katrina disaster to help put New orleans back together