

Group Members:

Our Topic:

Storyboard Directions: Each member of your group has collected his/her research for the presentation. Now, you must put it together into one presentation that is interesting and engaging for the other members of the class. Have each square represent one slide and draw a sketch or abbreviated text of what will be on that slide. If you are going to have more than eight slides, continue on another page.
